

Monastery of Santa Cruz de la Zarza

The Monastery of Santa Cruz de la Zarza, is a former monastery of the Premonstratensian order and Cistercian-protogótico style, already exclaustro and currently in a state of abandonment, located in the low valley of the river Carrión, between the towns of Ribas de Campos and Monzón de Campos, in the Tierra de Campos region of the province of Palencia.

It maintains the church built in the thirteenth century with later reforms and the chapter room a rectangular space covered with vaults and four central columns.
