

Toro, Festivity of the Harvest

This celebration is a symbol of the recovery of traditional celebrations. For a few days the city and its inhabitants go back in time. Everything is seen with eyes of the past.

The central act of the festival is the parade of traditional cars, which go through the most important streets of the town decked out in the old way and loaded with baskets full of grapes.

The accompaniment dressed up, they and they, children and adults in old vintage costumes, carry baskets full of typical vintage foods: chorizo, ham, cheese, peppers, bread, torreznos ... and of course the wine.

The originality consists in that these foods that they carry are not only for their own enjoyment, but they invite all those who watch the show to taste these delicacies, which they are very happy to accept.
