

Holy Week in Tordesillas

Festival characterised by its tradition, history, art, and above all for the intensity of its celebrations. The floats make up the general procession on Good Friday.

Some of the fraternities' floats have images of great artistic value, such as La Quinta Angustia (the fifth anguish) of 1589 by Adrián Álvarez and Cristo Atado a la Columna (Christ tied to the column) of 1766 by Felipe Espinabete.
