Birds of Carucedo - Las Medulas

The route has two roads, one shorter that arrives to the lake Carucedo and another more extensive that arrives to Las Medulas. The longest one allows you to travel between a Holm oak forest dotted with chestnut trees, strawberry trees, and wild rose bushes, where you can watch birds such as warblers and chiffchaffs.

Route Data

Origin and destination of the route:

Carucedo (León)

Journey: Circular

Way: On foot (245 h.) By bike (1 h.)

Length: 9.95 km.

Recommended: Spring, Summer, Autumn, Winter

Address

Carucedo. 24442 León.

Website: http://www.birdwatchinginspain.com/index.php/es/rutas/comarcales/4355-las-aves-de-carucedo

Find out more

Other sites

http://www.birdwatchinginspain.com/index.php/rutas/index.php?option=com_content&id=4355

Copyright © 2021 Junta de Castilla y León - Consejería de Cultura y Turismo