

Archaeological Hall Yecla Yeltes

The classroom is located in the Plaza Mayor of Yecla de Yeltes and houses a model of the castro complex together with explanatory drawings and photographs. Special mention should be made of the human heads sculpted in granite, as well as the boar, representing a wild boar and which is in a perfect state of conservation. The large collection of Roman stelae and the reconstruction of a high imperial tomb are also of great interest.

In the showcases you can see ceramics, weapons and decorations that bear witness to the successive occupations of the fort.
