

Parish Museum of the Church of San Juan

The museum hosts collections that are part of the religious heritage of the parish. Of the church of San Juan are the three apses of the header and is remarkable for the coexistence of brick with stone, especially, capitals, gargoyles and corner reinforcements.

Its jewel is the apostolate, thirteen seated sculptures made of polychrome stone and placed in a semicircle in the main chapel, dated around the year 1,200.

It highlights a Gothic calvary, from the 13th century and in one of its altarpieces the canvas representing Christ on the column, attributed to Luis de Morales.
