Museum of the book Fadrique de Basilea

The tour begins on the fourth floor of the building with a walk for the Prehistory of the book, visiting the different civilizations and their ways of fixing the writing.

Fadrique de Basilea was the most important printer of Burgos in the XV century. He practiced his profession in the city for over 30 years and from his workshop came out some of the most famous incunabula of this period, such as the first edition of 'La Celestina'.
