

Way of the Pesquerias Reales

Journey:	Linear
Way:	- On foot
Length:	12.1 kms.
Ascent slope:	234 m.
Difficulty of the route:	Medium-Low

Route: From Embalse del Pontón Alto to Fuente de la Canaleja

The route, created by Carlos III to have an easy access to privileged areas of fishing, is simple and pleasant. Therefore, it is recommended as a familiar route, being possible to go all together walking on the banks of the Eresma river.

The path can be traversed completely or only a stretch, since the journey passes through towns like Valsain as well as through the recreation areas of Los Asientos and Boca del Asno, both quiet places for a picnic.
