

Hosteria Camino

Posada Real ****

On the side of Monte Teleno, the Posada is an ancient rustic building and during its restoration the original ashlar, tiles, beams, doors and windows were preserved. The encaustic tiles from the 19th century are particularly noteworthy.

The Posada is divided up amongst three buildings that are separated from each other by two landscaped patios, typical of the region. The Hostería Camino has nine rooms with large windows with magnificent views to the Teleno mountain range, the streets of the village and the patios of the Posada. Just like the rest of the Posada, the rooms are decorated using antique furniture.
