

Tower of the Optical Telegraph

This building, restored in 2002, was the eleventh tower on the Castilla telegraph line between Madrid and Irún. It was set up in the 19th century in order to connect Madrid with the other main cities in Spain via an optical telegraph system.

HISTORICAL DATA

Architecture:	Vernacular architecture
Construction:	Tower
Historical Period:	Late modern period

ADDRESS AND MAP LOCATION

- Postal address Número 11 de la línea Madrid - Irún. Adanero. NaN. Ávila

TOURIST INFORMATION

Adanero town hall

Address

- Postal address municipality of Adanero . Ávila
- Email
adanero@diputacionavila.es
- Web
www.adanero.es
- Phones
920 307 001

To know more

Ávila tourism office

Address

- Postal address Centro de Recepción de Visitantes - Avda. de Madrid, 39, entrada por la c/ San Vicente. Ávila. NaN. Ávila
- Email
oficinadeturismodeavila@jcyL.es
- Phones
920 211 387
- Fax
920 253 717

To know more