

El Barco de Ávila

Nestled in the spectacular Sierra de Gredos and on the banks of the Tormes River, the Barco de Avila falls in love at first sight.

History is palpable in its lively streets and squares, filled with an architectural heritage of great beauty.

Discover without haste its spectacular castle, its ancient walls, its charming hermitages and its church, as well as the sober palatial houses.

Their famous beans, revolconas potatoes or grilled steak are essential on the table.

Much to discover!
