

Toro

Toro is much more than its famous wines.

The town of Zamora has a history that begins with the Celtiberians and that, over the centuries, has filled its lively streets with an exceptional cultural and architectural heritage.

From its great collegiate church to its fortifications, its churches and its palatial houses, passing through its famous boars and its many wineries.

A visit that will be extended by the joy of its people and its fantastic traditional Zamora gastronomy.

You can not lose this!
