

Puebla de Sanabria

One of the most beautiful towns in Spain. Puebla de Sanabria is a jewel full of history in a magical natural enclave on the banks of the Tera and Castro rivers.

Walking and getting lost in its picturesque, cobbled streets is like going back to the Middle Ages thanks to the excellent state of conservation of its walls, castles, churches and emblazoned houses.

A dream place surrounded by pure nature and traditional cuisine of the highest level and, above all, very abundant. Dishes such as beans a la sanabresa, trout a la sanabresa, cabbage broth, octopus a la sanabresa or veal sanabresa are some of the delicacies that you can enjoy if you travel to the Zamora town. You can not miss it!
