

Parish Church of San Juan Bautista

Gothic church. The large main nave was rebuilt in the second half of the 15th century. The apse end was later on carved in the style of Francisco de Mora.

Single, three-section nave with chapels on both sides, all of them covered by groin vaults. The transept and the main chapel were later additions. The chapel has the coat of arms of the general Sancho Dávila. There is also the 15th-century granite font where Santa Teresa was christened on April 7, 1515 and a 17th-century font.
