

Town hall of Ciudad Rodrigo

Built in two different eras, the front part of the building in the first half of the 16th century and in 1923 the side additions.

Delimited by two small towers, it has a portal and a gallery with arches on a column with Plataresque capitals. On the left tower there are three coats-of-arms. It contains extensive Archive with valuable and important documents such as the collection of the books and agreements made by the town council since 1458.
