

Church of Santiago

It was founded in the middle of the XII century and restored in the 50's of the 20th century, losing its original character, and without maintaining virtually anything of the former building. It was the only one preserved which was a Mozarabic parish. A good test of its relevant character is that only the Cathedral of Salamanca and this church maintained the right of asylum when this was reduced in 1772.

Historical Data

Architecture: Religious architecture

Construction: Church

Predominant styles: Mudejar

Historical Period: Middle Ages

Address

Pº. del Rector Esperabe, s/n. Salamanca. 37008 Salamanca.

More information

Oficina de Turismo of Salamanca

Address:

P/ Mayor, 32. Salamanca. 37002 Salamanca.

Teléfono: 902 302 002 / 923 218 342

Fax: 923 263 409

Email: informacion@turismodesalamanca.com

Página Web: www.salamanca.es

Timetables and Prices

Opening hours

- Every day:

Remarks: Exterior only

This website shall not be responsible for the accuracy of this data