

Parish Church and excolegial de Santa Ana

Baroque facade, the three upper busts and the columns are Roman, from the town of Clunia. 16th-century structure containing, in the presbytery, the heart of the Count of Montijo, the father of the Empress of France.

Parish Church and excolegial de Santa Ana

Boasting a superb Baroque façade, inside, the strikingly unusual architectural layout is crowned by a vast reredos on the main altar by the School of Ventura Rodríguez. Other treasures include the pulpit, the elaborate walnut-carved choir stalls, several valuable sculptures, a collection of relics and a fascinating museum housed in the sacristy.
