

Church of Santa Maria Magdalena

16th-century single-nave gothic church, divided into four sections separated by slightly pointed arches on a baroque ledge. The octagonal apse end is covered by a star-shaped vault.

The church is made of large stone blocks. Gothic front, a tower and a Baroque belfry.

The baldachin of the Iglesia de Santa María: Large 18th-century baldachin made of painted and gilt wood, with heavily ornate Salomon columns resting on pillars, also decorated.
