

Posada Quinta de San José

Posada Real ****

A stately early 20th century building that originally housed a convent and which today has been meticulously restored using traditional materials and elements, whilst retaining the original Talavera mosaic tiles.

The Posada Real Quinta San José is built on four floors and the area around the Posada forms an ideal backdrop for a host of leisure activities: horse riding and bicycle rides, hiking, eco-routes, quads and 4x4 rides. Guests will also enjoy exploring the area's rich archaeological heritage.
