

Interpretation Center of the hermitage of San Baudelio

The San Baudelio Interpretation Center offers visitors complete and varied information on the Mozarabic Hermitage of San Baudelio, prior to visiting the monument itself located in Casillas de Berlanga. This Interpretation Center, located in the old Berlanga de Duero slaughterhouse, has explanatory panels, audiovisuals, a model of the hermitage and a large photo of the palm tree; In addition, it also has a final area with educational activities and images of the province and the region that help the visitor learn about the history, architecture, paintings and surroundings of the Hermitage of San Baudelio. Visits are carried out through a self-management method, using a building access card that the visitor can pick up at the Berlanga Town Hall and at the Tourist Office of this same town.
