

Why Castilla y León?

Castilla y León is the birthplace of the Spanish and has a wide academic offer, both public and private, to learn our language. It has become a worldwide reference in the learning of the Spanish Language Teaching, as well as a privileged place where to meet also the culture and above all the important historical legacy of this language.