Manuela recalls stories and songs from her grandmother's youth and her life in the village. Times have changed, perhaps too quickly in some ways, but not fast enough in others. Manuela and her grandmother have a plan: they will rewrite the ending of their stories, where from now on, every voice counts. Through this performance, we will reflect on the passage of time, gender equality, rural life, and care for the elderly.

Genre: Theatre. Style: Tragic-comic. Duration: 50 min.

Show included in the programming of the Scenic Circuits of Castilla y León.
