After the success of "Primitals," which was awarded Best Musical by the audience at the 2019 Avignon Theatre Festival, Primal Bros, now in the midst of developing their next show, are delighted with this delicate concert, as they can't stop singing and the audience wants to keep watching and listening.

These four a cappella performers, some of the most unusual on the music scene, have prepared a four-part review of classic songs and their own compositions with the personal touch that distinguishes this group.

Primal is an artistic concept that, through onomatopoeic sounds, creates an entire subculture that connects with human psychology in its purest form. Created by Santi Ibarretxe (Bilbao, 1964), composer, saxophonist, singer, and former member of the group Oskorri.
