

CASTILLA Y LEÓN

Ruta de la línea férrea de la Fregeneda. Camino de Hierro. El puente de Poyo Valiente, y tunel 7 del Pico, Salamanca (cedida agencia Ical)

CAMINO DE HIERRO

An experience of contrasts

Camino de Hierro is a walking trail that runs along the final stretch of the Fuentes de San Esteban (Spain) - Barca d'Alva (Portugal) railway line, which has been closed to traffic since 1985. A hiking trail that combines the grandeur of the 19th century's most iconic civil engineering with spectacular nature.

On this trail you will experience vertigo on bridges suspended over impossible gorges, uncover the shadows of tunnels carved into the rock, and discover the vastness of landscapes that form part of a unique ecosystem.

A different, daring journey; a contrasting experience of lights, perspectives, and sensations.

In short, a journey of stone, iron and water.

Trail:

The trail covers 17 km from La Fregeneda station to the Vega Terrón river dock, with an estimated duration of about 6 hours. At the start, just 500 meters from the station, you pass through Tunnel Number 1, the longest on the route at over 1.5km long. At the exit, a succession of 20 tunnels and 10 bridges begins, marking out the path along a gently descending slope. The route follows the impressive cliffs and the course of the Águeda river until it flows into the Duero, at the only river dock in Castilla and León. After you arrive there, a shuttle will take you back to the starting point.

Reservations

Access to the entrance of the Camino de Hierro must be booked on this website: www.caminodehierro.es
Access is only available to those over the age of 10.

Aranda de Duero has been awarded the title of European Wine City 2020 by RECEVIN, competing with incredible places like Haro, Rueda or La Palma del Condado. Due to the exceptional situation that happened in 2020, it has been extended during the years 2021 and 2022.

In the centre of the extensive fertile plain irrigated by the river Duero, lies the capital of the no less extensive riparian region: Aranda de Duero.

Repopulated in the 9th century, the name of this Castilian city appears for the first time in the Council of Husillos held in 1088. However, it already had very ancient settlements from whose languages it takes its name, Aranda, which means "wide plain", while Duero comes from the river's name. In the 13th century, Sancho IV and Pedro I had already granted the town the privilege of royal status, a status that the people of Aranda never wished to relinquish. Proof of this was demonstrated when, during the reign of Fernando IV, Diego López de Haro wanted to take over the town. The tower of the church of Santa María, built in the 12th century as a defensive feature of the town, bears witness to such courtly intrigues.

Court in the reign of Henry IV, where Archbishop Alfonso Carrillo convened a Council in 1473, held in the church of San Juan. Loyal to the cause of Princess Isabella for the succession to the crown, at the end of the 15th century, beginning of the 16th century, the façade of the church of Santa Maria, on which the royal coats of arms can be seen, among other works, was built.

The church, built in the 15th century in the Gothic style, is home to a 17th century altarpiece and a beautiful Renaissance pulpit, carved by Miguel Espinosa and Juan de Cambray, among other works of art.

Also Gothic, although earlier than Santa María, is the church of San Juan. The façade is adorned with a portal of pointed arches supported by delicate spires, and a later image of Saint John the Baptist. In the chapel of the Calderonas you can see a Plateresque altarpiece, with paintings by an unknown artist from the early 16th century.

TOURISM IDEAS IN CASTILLA Y LEÓN

Museo de la Naturaleza Valle del Alberche en El Barraco, Ávila

THE ALBERCHE VALLEY NATURE MUSEUM, EL BARRACO, ÁVILA

The Alberche Valley Nature Museum shows us the biodiversity of this area. It includes a permanent exhibition where you can admire the flora, fauna, and fungi of the region. The exhibition is spread over the foyer and five rooms: The Main Room, The Forest Room, The River Room, The Hunting and Fishing Room, and The Night Room. This exhibition features around 500 pieces with life-size artistic replicas, natural settings, models, various biological samples in display cabinets, a collection of minerals from the area, and naturalised and audiovisual exhibits. Temporary exhibitions are also held here. Outside the museum there are two themed paths: The Botanical Path and The Mushroom Path. A Bird Observatory is also to be found here. The museum organizes various activities, some of which are for children, and publishes a monthly newsletter of activities.

BURGOS CIDIANO - EL CID MEDIEVAL FESTIVAL

Rodrigo Díaz de Vivar, el Cid Campeador (a Castilian knight), is undoubtedly the most famous person from Burgos. In his honour, the city of Burgos puts on several days of events at the beginning of autumn focusing on him and the medieval world. In 2022 the festival is titled Burgos Cidiano 'El Regreso' (The Return) and will run from September 29th to October 2nd. Burgos residents and visitors alike can fully step back into the 11th century, accompanied by Burgos' most legendary son. The city's historic centre is transformed into a gigantic medieval theme park adorned with flags and banners, the streets are lively, full of parades, battles, and hundreds of participants from associations linked to the Cid Campeador and the Middle.

Fiesta de San Froilan, León

THE FESTIVITIES OF SAN FROILÁN IN LEÓN: TRADITION AND CUISINE

The most unique festivities in the city of León are celebrated in honour of the patron saint of the local diocese, San Froilán. On the Sunday before October 5th - called the Feast of the Saint - festivities begin with different celebrations that fill the city centre with colour and tradition. The festival of "Las Cantaderas" - a festival of Tourist Interest in Castilla and León - is held in the cloister of the Cathedral and is similar to the original festival. The young "cantaderas", dressed in medieval clothing, dance to the beat of the "sotadera", in a parade that passes behind the Municipal Council from the Plaza del Ayuntamiento. The Decorated Carts parade and subsequent competition bring together around 50 carts from different parts of the province, which are decked out in their finest decorations to conjure up the traditions involved in going on a pilgrimage to the Virgen del Camino. The parade starts at the Avenida de los Cubos and finishes at the Plaza del Grano, where the contest is held. The most original and carefully decorated cart is declared the winner. The Pendones parade is another of the day's highlights. Large banners representing the different regions of León come from all over the province and are accompanied by traditional bands which make their way from San Marcos to the Plaza Mayor. Other activities are held over this period, such as the medieval market of the Three Cultures, the Black Pudding Fair, the Pottery Fair, the International Celtic Festival, parades, and much more.

BRAÑOSERA, PALENCIA

Brañosera is a beautiful town nestled in the Palencia Mountains. It is believed to have the oldest town council in Spain, as evidenced by the municipal charter granted on October 13th 824, which mentions the town under the name of Brannia-Ossaria, which means land of brañas (pastures) and bears. The charter was granted by Count Munio Núñez and his wife Argilo to entice settlers to the area. They granted their subjects rights such as free use of the entire valley, albeit with two conditions. Firstly, they had to share part of the freedom of use with whomever wanted to come and settle in the valley. Secondly, they were to give the Count half of what they were paid by the inhabitants of the nearby towns for letting their livestock graze on the lands. The charter is kept in Brañosera's town hall and can be visited free of charge with a booking made in advance by calling 979 606 277 between 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

Convento y Museo de Pintura Medieval de Las Claras, Salamanca

LAS CLARAS CONVENT AND MUSEUM OF MEDIEVAL PAINTING, SALAMANCA

The Convent of Las Claras was founded in 1238 under the strict rule of the Franciscan Sisters of San Damián, also known as the Poor Clares. The baroque-style church, with Churrigueresque vaults, main and side altarpieces, choir, and cloister, can be visited using an original system of walkways and bridges. After the discovery of the mural paintings, all the rooms were restored between 1986 and 1989 by the Ministry of Culture and Tourism of the Regional Government of Castilla and León and were granted the "Europa Nostra" award by Her Majesty Queen Sofia herself. After recent extensive renovation by the Edades del Hombre Foundation, the convent has been transformed into a museum of medieval painting, where the mural paintings and the polychrome ceiling from the late 14th century can be admired.

SEPÚLVEDA, SEGOVIA

The town of Sepúlveda lies between the Duratón and Casilla rivers, in an extraordinary location that attracted both Celtic and Roman settlers. Indeed, the ancient Roman town of "Confluenta", which was mentioned by Ptolemy in the 2nd century AD, can be found nearby. It was initially repopulated by the Count of Castile, Fernán González, although it was definitively returned to Christian hands by Sancho García, Fernán's grandson, in 1010. Given the dangerous times, the Count granted a municipal charter to attract people to Sepúlveda, which was ratified by his successors. Nowadays, the Museo de los Fueros, housed in the Romanesque church of Santos Justo y Pastor, can be visited. A haven of Segovian Romanesque architecture, Sepúlveda offers a collection of churches including the churches of Justo y Pastor, San Bartolomé, El Salvador, Nuestra Señora de la Peña, and Santiago, where the Hoces del Duratón park (natural park and vulture reserve) visitor centre is located. There are also the remnants of the city wall (some of its Seven Gates are still standing), the ruins of the castle, el museo de figuras y juguetes antiguos (the museum of old figurines and toys), the museum of the Segovian painter Lope Tablada de Diego, and the interpretation centre of the old prison (where the tourist office is now located). Come visit this captivating town!

Uxama, Burgo de Osma, Soria

ARCHAEOLOGICAL SITE AND CENTRE IN UXAMA, SORIA

Uxama, together with Numancia and Tiermes, is one of the main Celtiberian-Roman cities in the province of Soria. The results of the excavations carried out at this site tell us of an important Roman city with well-designed urban roads and arcaded pavements. The city was supplied with water by an aqueduct and a large underground tank with settling and distribution basins. Other architectural remains of public buildings include the arcaded square, temple, basilica, and a possible Forum. The most significant houses of which archaeological evidence has been found, such as the Casa de los Plintos, were built in adobe on stone foundations and were decorated with fresco murals. The Islamic watchtower stands tall on the 'el Castro' hill the city is located on. This viewpoint offers stunning views of the city of Osma, the castle, and the gorge of the Avión and Ucero rivers. In the old Hospital of San Agustín, on the Plaza Mayor of Burgo de Osma, is the "Antigua Osma" Archaeological Centre, which is an essential part of any visit to the site. The centre encourages you to learn about the site through the recreation of spaces, models, audiovisual exhibits, and 3D projections.

SEMINCI, VALLADOLID

The Valladolid International Film Week is one of the most important film events in Spain, where the most innovative premieres in cinema are held. It takes place in October and the main venue is the Teatro Calderón. First held on March 20th 1956, at the time it was linked to Holy Week, as a week of religious cinema, however the scarcity of productions in this genre led it to evolve into its current form. During this international film festival Valladolid is full of life and film fanatics, which makes it a good time to come and visit the city. One of the most important prizes awarded at this event is the Golden Spike and the cinema award. This award has been won by such famous films as: One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest (Milos Forman), A Clockwork Orange (Stanley Kubrick), and Thelma and Louise (Ridley Scott).

ZAMORA CASTLE

Castillo de Zamora (cedida Alonso Iglesias Sebastián)

This is no palatial castle but rather a fortress protecting the residents and the city and is intrinsically linked to the history of Zamora. Fernando I ordered its construction in the mid-11th century, although very few remains from this time are left. Built on rock and naturally adapted to the uneven terrain, it stands at the highest point of a rocky hill making it virtually unassailable. It is rhomboid in shape with three towers, two of which are pentagonal and the third is heptagonal. The keep and the moat are noticeably prominent features. Attached to the building is the Parque del Castillo (Castle Park), which features gardens and viewpoints; a peaceful place to take a break on a visit to the city of Zamora. The sculptures of Baltasar Lobo can also be viewed, both inside the castle as well as in the gardens and in the Casa de los Gigantes (House of the Giants). When the site was refurbished in 2009, the castle became an open-air museum, free to all visitors. We strongly recommend you climb up to the keep because it offers an impressive viewpoint from where you can take in the Cathedral. In summer, evening entertainment at the castle includes a great variety of theatre, comedy, music, and dance...

Remember, in Castilla y León, you'll find everything and more... WE CAN'T WAIT TO SEE YOU!!!
