Consulate of the Sea

The building is from the XVIII century, and is dedicated to the Academy of drawing. Its name is reminiscent of the Royal Consulate of Burgos, the institution of Burgos which was devoted to trade with the countries of Northern Europe throughout the middle ages.

Historical Data

Architecture: Civil engineering
Construction: Palace
Predominant styles: Neoclassical
Historical Period: Early modern period

Address

Website: https://cultura.burgos.es/cultura/arte-y-patrimonio/sala-de-exposiciones-consulado-del-mar

More information

Tourist Office of Burgos

Address:
Telephone: 947 288 874
Email: infoturismo@aytoburgos.es
Website: http://turismo.aytoburgos.es/

Tourist Office Regional of Burgos

Address:
Telephone: 947 203 125
Fax: 947 276 529
Email: oficinadeturismodeburgos@jcyl.es