

Museum and Didactic Center of the Lace of Castilla y León

It is a subsidiary museum dependent on the Museum and Didactic Center of Castilla y León in Tordesillas.

The different collections of fabrics, embroideries, lace and clothing are exhibited in three old Cabrera houses restored for this purpose. The total of the exhibition area is 301 square meters. At first the objective was to exercise a didactic task to recover the lace, embroidered fabrics and clothing of La Cabrera, as well as the culture of linen, wool and vegetable fibers, which had disappeared in the region.

There are three rooms, exhibitions. In the first, courses and workshops are held and it is equipped with a textile-themed library and a selection of historical pieces of lace and embroidery. The second contains traditional pieces of fabrics, embroidery and lace specific to La Cabrera, as well as everything related to the production of the raw material, linen, as well as a garish car, spinning wheels and coffers. The third room is dedicated to weaving and shows quilts, blankets and other pieces made with hand loom with linen and wool made in La Cabrera.
