

The red and black villages in the Sierra de Ayllón of Segovia

Spectacular walk through various towns at the foot of the Sierra de Ayllón: villages built with ferruginous stones, clay soil or slate, giving a very special color to the area. Towns like Madriguera (red) or El Muyo (black) are the greatest exponents in a most complete plan together with Riaza, Alquité, Villacorta, El Negrodo, Serracín, Becerril, Martín Muñoz de Ayllón and Riofrío de Riaza.
