

Roman villa of Los Quintanares

From this villa its entire floor is preserved, together to several of its paved rooms with mosaics, which are in good condition; one of them keeps the bust of the Ops goddess. Many objects have been found, of which stands out a statue of the god Saturn, which can be visited in the Museum Numantino of Soria.

In the town of Rioseco de Soria a cultural space has been inaugurated with information about the Roman villa Los Quintanares and the local mill.
