

Interpretation Center of the History of Lerma

In the Interpretation Center of Villa de Lerma its history is shown; Their monuments; outstanding characters, traditions and culture, with special attention to the seventeenth century and the Baroque parties organized by the Duke of Lerma for the court of Philip III: clothing, cuisine, military and religious life, etc ...

All information is obtained through information panels, models and rigorous reproductions of costumes of the s. XVII used by recreational groups, both Tercios and the Napoleonic stage. Portraits, watercolors, well and even a winery take you back to a time when the world ruled from the Villa ducal de Lerma.
