

Museum Art Nouveau and Art Deco. House Lis

More than 1600 pieces forming 19 collections, with works by Emile Gallé, René Lalique, the Daum brothers and Charles Schneider; bronze and ivory statues; pieces from the Escuela Francesa de Nancy; and also includes porcelain collections, jugs, enamel work, bronze, bathroom objects, toys, fans, textiles, old postcards and paintings.

Edificios

Old private mansion from 1905, commissioned by the businessman from Salamanca, Miguel Lis and carried out by the architect Joaquín Vargas, architect of the Central Market of Salamanca. The building is Modernist in style.

When Lis died the house passed into the hands of the Esperabé family for a period of 40 years. The house was occupied by nuns up until the 1980s when the Council acquired and renovated the building.
