

Museum of the Carpentry

Museum located in rooms of the City Hall since 2001. It was created with the intention of making a tribute to an ancient tradition now become a thriving industry. The collection comprises approximately 200 pieces. At the exhibition you can see the tools that carpenters have been using over time. It is organized into sections, depending on the value of the pieces, starting by the first step, which would be the felling of the tree and continuing by each of the necessary processes to finish the object.
