

Archaeological Hall of Herrera de Pisuerga

Didactic hall recreating the Roman world, the life in a Roman legion's camp, a ceramics workshop, a coin and bronze workshop... Created with the idea of building awareness of the remains of the Roman camp located in Herrera (once the Roman Pisoraca).

At the entrance to the hall an observation tower from the Roman era has been reconstructed of a height of 8 metres, as a replica of those in the Roman soldier settlements.
