

Parish Museum of the Church of San Juan

The museum hosts collections that are part of the religious heritage of the parish. Of the church of San Juan are the three apses of the header and is remarkable for the coexistence of brick with stone, especially, capitals, gargoyles and corner reinforcements.

Its jewel is the apostolate, thirteen seated sculptures made of polychrome stone and placed in a semicircle in the main chapel, dated around the year 1,200.

It highlights a Gothic calvary, from the 13th century and in one of its altarpieces the canvas representing Christ on the column, attributed to Luis de Morales.

Buildings

Church of San Juan: Triple Mudejar Romanesque apse. Three naves separated by 15th-century pillars. It houses a museum of religious art. Was built in the late 12th and early 13th century, preserving its original ground plan and some sidewalls. The main jewel is the wooden Apostolate, painted and of Bizantine Romanesque style, dominating the main chapel. There is a Calvary of the 13th century, a Gothic crucifix and a canvas painting of Christ tied to the Column, attributed to Morales.
