

Interpretation Center of the Three Cultures

It consists of several areas, the first of which served to welcome pilgrims, who could seal their accreditation and get information of Leon and of the hostels and hotels. There was also an interactive point and another audiovisual.

The Interpretation Centre of the Jew Leon and of the Way of Saint James in the city of Leon is located in the church of San Pedro of Puente Castro. It explains to visitors how the ancient Castro de los Judios of Puente Castro was, and what objects and materials are being discovered in the archaeological excavations that are currently taking place in a space in which, in medieval times, came to live over a thousand people.
