

Posada de las Misas

Posada Real *****

La Posada Real de las Misas is built upon the city walls and dates back to the 15th century. The inn was built upon slate stone rock and its structure has been altered over the course of time. It is now fully restored and has three floors with windows and balconies which offer magnificent views of the town and river.

There are many activities available at the inn, such as cultural visits and nature walks, as well as active tourism options. There is free wifi throughout the inn as well as a computer with internet.
