

La Alberca

In the heart of the leafy Sierra de Francia, La Alberca is one of the most iconic towns in Spain and the jewel of Salamanca.

Discover a place full of charm where time seems stopped and that has maintained its essence throughout the centuries.

Stroll through its intricate and picturesque streets in search of the most beautiful and authentic corners and you will see the Marrano de San Antón, a pig that is released at the festival of San Antonio de Padua that, fed by the neighbors, wanders freely through the streets until the feast of San Antón, the day on which it will be drawn.

The baked suckling pig, the sausages and the famous hornazo and the nougat from La Alberca will fill the table to the delight of the most demanding palates.

You can not lose this!
