

Fuentidueña

Nature and history go hand in hand in the beautiful Segovian town of Fuentidueña, located in the north of the province on the Duratón River valley ravine.

Learn about its rich history forged over centuries by the different cultures that passed through it and have left us an exceptional heritage legacy.

From its walls to the churches and palace of its small urban center, every corner of this town holds treasures waiting to be discovered.

Its traditional baked lamb, its game meats and its wines complete a delicious experience.

Do not miss it!
