

Church / Convent of Santa Clara

Pure Baroque decoration, octagonal ground plan, salomon-style main altarpiece, vegetal decorative motifs and fresco paintings in the dome.

The church was built of stone in 1698. There is a front with a round arch flanked by two pillars and topped off by a pediment in the upper section. On the scallops of the dome are two paintings of Saint Bernard and the Annunciation. Four Baroque altarpieces with Salomon-style columns of the early 18th century decorate the sides of the church.
