

Church of the Inmaculada Concepcion

The temple was built under the patronage of the Dukes of Béjar in the XVI century, in a Renaissance style. It has a single nave, which is covered with half barrel vault and lunettes, and a high-rise tower.

It is remarkable the iconographic program of the facade; built with stone. It is decorated with busts and heraldic emblems of the patrons of the temple, the Dukes of Béjar, symbolizing their virtues and values

Historical Data

---

Architecture: Religious architecture

Construction: Church

Predominant styles: Renaissance

Historical Period: Early modern period

Address

---

Iglesia, 16. Becedas. 5610 Ávila.

More information

---

Ayuntamiento of Becedas

Address:

Municipality of Becedas. Ávila.

Teléfono: 923 430 001

Fax: 923 430 001

Email: becedas@diputacionavila.es

Página Web: www.becedas.es

Tourist Office Regional of Ávila

Address:

Casa de las Carnicerías. C/ San Segundo, 17. Ávila. 5001 Ávila.

Telephone: 920 211 387

Fax: 920 253 717

Email: oficinadeturismodeavila@jcyl.es

Timetables and Prices

---

Opening hours

- Every day: book visit in advance