

Hermitage of San Frutos

Church belonging to the silosian priory of San Frutos, where the benedictine monks stayed from 1076 till 1836. Shrine built on a visigoth necropolis. Its capitals have scenes of the childhood of christ.

Adopted homeland of Christian hermits who left artistic evidence of the pagan cult to the principles and forces of nature in their caves. San Frutos retired here at the end of the Visigoth period.
