

Castle of the Duque de Montellano

Built in the late 15th century, privately owned, and currently complete and restored as a house. It once belonged to the Valderrábanos family.

It is a good example of castle-palace built with brick and rammed earth (mortar), which relates it with the Mudejar architecture. It is rectangular and has a large tower keep.

Historical Data

---

Architecture: Civil engineering

Construction: Palace

Predominant styles: Mudejar

Historical Period: , Middle Ages Early modern period

Address

---

Narros de Saldueña. 5358 Ávila.

More information

---

Ayuntamiento of Narros de Saldueña

Address:

Municipality of Narros de Saldueña. Ávila.

Teléfono: 920 241 061

Email: narrossalduena@diputacionavila.es

Página Web: www.narrosdesalduena.es

Tourist Office Regional of Ávila

Address:

Casa de las Carnicerías. C/ San Segundo, 17. Ávila. 5001 Ávila.

Telephone: 920 211 387

Fax: 920 253 717

Email: oficinadeturismodeavila@jcyl.es