

Church and Convent Descalzas Reales

The church was built in the early 17th century, when the court of Felipe II was headquartered here and the works finished in 1615.

The church has a single nave, and that is why the façade forms a vertical triangle topped off by a pediment. There is a niche containing a stone sculpture of the Immaculate. In the transept there are two altarpieces dating from the 17th century and on the Epistle side there is a Baroque altarpiece featuring a sculpture of the Immaculate dating from the last quarter of the 17th century.
