

Monastery of the MM. Dominicas de Santa Catalina

Founded in 1488. Church of one nave covered by tubes in the transept, renaissance cloister and the main altar is the work of Diego Valentin Díaz, the most important local painter of the Valladolid school of the 17th century.

Next to the Gospel is a painted 17th century altarpiece and a Crucifix by Juan de Juni, who is buried in the church along with the rest of his family. In the nuns' choir at Easter the Cristo Yacente by Gregorio Fernández is on display.
