

Monastery of San Polo

Monasterio Templario which inspired Bécquer to write the tale 'El rayo de luna'.

The first data of the temple correspond to the Census of Alfonso X the Wise in 1270. In the XVIII century it ceased to be open for worship and became a private property. Of the ancient convent only remain the Romanesque church and some vestiges which do not reach the meter in height of the start of the walls of the cloister.
