

Tower of the Cantimplor

15th century, was the site of the abbeys of Vivanco. Deteriorated medieval building. Arched windows with coats-of-arms between them. Arched doorway, slit windows and coats of arms near the roof.

The Tower of the Cantimplor was built in the town by the family Alvarado Bracamonte, who left its testimony in the form of coats of arms in some parts of the building; although in the XVI century the building became property of the family Angulo Vivanco Ortiz
