

Parish Church of San Vicente Martir

This church features some 13th-century mural paintings tracing the life of Saint Vincent and some 15th-century board paintings. Of it stands out of the early period the chevet, with ogive triumphal arch, through which we access, and the semicircular apse and semi-dome. Abroad, altered by the construction of the tower-bell gable, retains the original central window and historiated corbels and metopes.
