

Castle of the Duques del Infantado

The castle of Saldaña was home to Romans, Visigoths and Arabs, until Alfonso I conquered it for Christendom. Inside the castle died the queen Ms. Urraca, daughter of Alfonso VI.

Its military importance declined until becoming prison, subject to disputes between the Count de la Villa and several mayors of the time. It is currently in ruins.

Historical Data

Construction: Castle / Fortress / Watchtower

Address

Del Hospital. Saldaña. 34100 Palencia.

More information

Tourist Office of Saldaña

Address:

LA CASONA- Plaza de San Pedro, s/n. Saldaña. 34100 Palencia.

Telephone: 979 890 262 / 979 890 995 (Ayto)

Website: www.saldania.com

Tourist Office Regional of Palencia

Address:

C/ Mayor, 31. Palencia. 34001 Palencia.

Telephone: 979 706 523

Fax: 979 706 525

Email: oficinadeturismodepalencia@jcyll.es

Timetables and Prices

Observaciones: Sólo queda un muro