

Church of Santa Maria

Three-nave structure erected in 1585. the side naves are separated from the central one by round arches and covered by vaults.

A chapel devoted to the Santo Cristo (Holy Christ) was erected in the 18th century, consisting of two sections with windows and a vault on scallops leading to the sacristy, covered by a cove vault. The impressive altarpiece of the Trinity contains a 14th-century Gothic image of Christ on the Cross, venerated and taken out on parade to pray for divine help during calamitous times.
