

HAY Festival Segovia

An international literary event in which nearly one hundred of prominent writers and artists from around the world meet for discussions, lectures and colloquiums in which the audience participates too, readings, presentations of new books, exhibitions and concerts ... HAY Festival brings closer each September to a very different audience the latest literary novelties as well as the more established writers, not forgetting the new creators of short stories, poems and stories in order to not stop imagining.

Address

Segovia. Segovia.

Website: <http://www.hayfestival.com/segovia/>