

Palencia International Film Festival

Hundreds of films and shorts films are presented each year at the International Film Festival of Palencia, which has already become a benchmark event for young film directors and consolidated directors both from Spain and from other parts of the world. Also, around this festival, the city of Palencia welcomes cinematographic exhibitions and other activities that accompany this annual celebration.

Address

Palencia. Palencia.

Website: <http://www.palenciamcip.com/>